

Good day to our friends in the field of after school and youth development!

You've asked for more of it and now we are able to offer it... distance learning! The Illinois AfterSchool Network, in partnership with the Illinois Network of Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies, will offer webinars to the field!

The Illinois Network of Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies has many years of experience providing innovative, engaging, e-learning webinars to the field.

Behavioral Management is not a "One Size Fits All"

Wednesday, November 14, 2018 • 10:00am–11:30am

Several factors affect the behaviors of the children/youth we serve in our various settings. This interactive webinar will explore various aspects of behavior, examine developmentally appropriate practices in your programs, and discuss best practice strategic approaches designed to modifying behaviors. This session will also touch on topics of bullying, aggression, moods, body and physical changes and other behaviors plaguing the ages we work with. Behavior Management should be proactive, not reactive, for maximum results. Come prepared to join the lively interaction and share tips, strategies and methods in this session.

Intended Audience: Front Line Staff and Coordinators

IAN Trainer: Debbie Rogers-Jaye, Adjunct Professor, Harold Washington College, Educational Consultant and IAN Board Member

Cost: $15 IAN members and $30 non-members

Register: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/7209815895865855489>

Five Core Principles of a Trauma-Informed Setting in After School

Wednesday, January 30, 2019 • 10:00am–11:30am

During this session, we will discuss how to implement the five core principles of trauma-informed care in an after school setting:

1. Review safety
2. Staff and students trustworthiness
3. Providing trauma-informed choices
4. Incorporating empowerment
5. Work in Collaboration with youth and family

By the end of the training, programs will receive core principles and strategies to promote a trauma-informed environment in the after school space.

Intended Audience: Front Line Staff and Coordinators

IAN Trainer: Tiana Cody, Program Director, Crisis Intervention Team and Aunt Martha's Social Service Agency

Cost: $15 IAN members and $30 non-members

Register: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/2994190458813395201>

Illinois AfterSchool Network is a Gateways to Opportunity® Registry Authorized Entity

As always, if you have any questions, please email us at ianetwrk@att.net. Many thanks for your continued support of our work in the field of after school and youth development.