Clover Model:

Trainer -Hannah Sherrad

The Clover Model conveys growth, luck, nurturance, and balance. It is a framework that helps us understand human developmental needs. It establishes a common language that can be used to communicate the strengths and challenges of children and youth.

Common Core Overview:

Trainer - Anni Reinking

The Common Core standards participants will deconstruct the standards to grasp a better understanding of the standards and apply implementation practices to the standards.

Building Positive Relationships with Families:

Trainer- Curtis Peace

This interactive workshop will focus on building positive, lifelong relationships with parents/families essential for effective and holistic program service delivery. We will examine our attitudes toward parent involvement along with tips and strategies for building and maintaining positive relationships. Come prepared to share your successes and concerns, while having fun during the workshop session.

From Absence of Control to Zen: Strategies to Manage Behaviors in After-School and Bullying Prevention

Trainer- Carolyn Beal

Be prepared to participate in this highly interactive workshop. You will be provided with a toolbox of skills to understand why children enter into after-school age programs with various behaviors and some possible solutions to minimize or eliminate the unwanted behaviors. Various types of bullying that occur with this age group and how to manage those behaviors. Please come to the workshop ready to discuss your most difficult cases.
