

Richard Scofield Recognition Award

Richard Scofield was the owner of School Age Notes in Nashville, TN. Because of his countless contributions to the field of afterschool and expanded learning, and to honor him, we began recognizing afterschool professionals with the Richard Scofield Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize and elevate an individual who has made a significant impact in the field.

Please complete this form and return with all required information. Current IAN Board of Directors are not eligible for nomination.

Name of Nominee: _____

Position/Title: _____

How many years has this person been in the field? _____

Address: _____

City State ZIP: _____

Daytime Phone: (____) _____

Email: _____

Nominator's Name: _____

Daytime Phone: (____) _____

Email: _____

Please answer the following questions on a separate piece of paper (maximum of two pages):

1. Describe the nominee's achievements in after school/school-age care in Illinois (e.g.: how has the person contributed to their agency and local/state programs; why recognize this person with a nomination?)
2. Describe how the nominee's leadership has impacted children and families, other professionals and yourself. Please include examples.
3. Describe this individual's commitment to the field. Please include examples that support professionalism in the after school/youth development field here in Illinois.
4. Additional comments.

Please note:

- We will not consider nomination forms that do not include all of the required information.
- Application deadline: Friday, February 17, 2023.
- The award will be presented at the Annual Spring Virtual Conference Celebration

Send completed nomination package to:

Richard Scofield Award c/o Illinois AfterSchool Network
2201 Toronto Road, Room 219
Springfield, Illinois 62712
Email: ianetwrk@att.net